

A Book By an Author With Your Initials

Challenge: Find an author with initials that match yours and read a book by that author. For example, if your name is Isaac Stephenson, find an author with the initial “I” for the first name and the initial “S” for the last name.

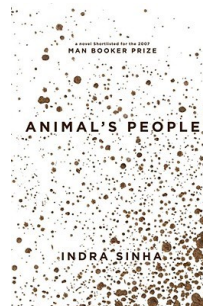

Find a match by browsing the fiction books. Go to the section that matches the first letter of your last name, then read through the authors first names to find one that matches your first initial.

Can't visit the library? Check out this feature of BookBrowse. Select the letter of your last name, and lists of authors appear by last name. Browse through the lists to find authors who match the initial of your first name, then find those authors in InfoSoup to identify books written by those authors.
