

Challenge: Read a book with characters who form a romantic entanglement. We are all familiar with the formula: despite being an unlikely pair, two people meet and are instantly attracted to one another. A misunderstanding drives the drama between the forlorn couple. Alas, the truth reveals love (maybe even a kiss) and a satisfying happily-ever-after ending.

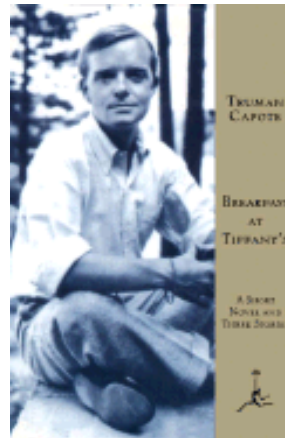

Reading ideas:

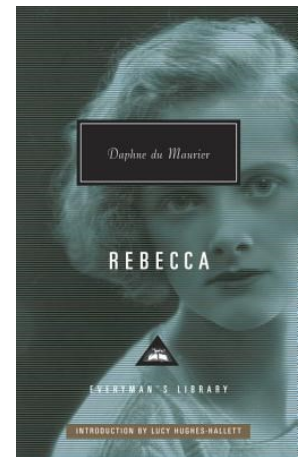

Pride and Prejudice
Jane Austen

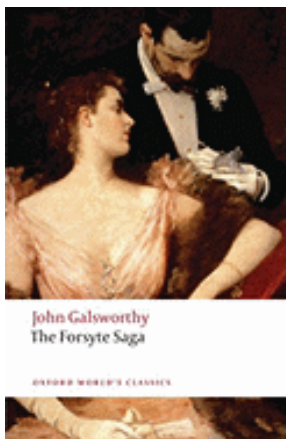

Jane Eyre
Charlotte Brontë

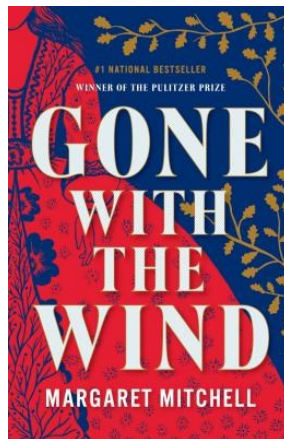

Breakfast at Tiffany's
Truman Capote

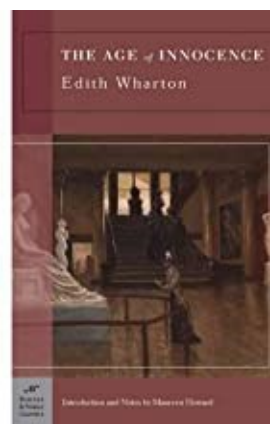

Rebecca
Daphne Du Maurier

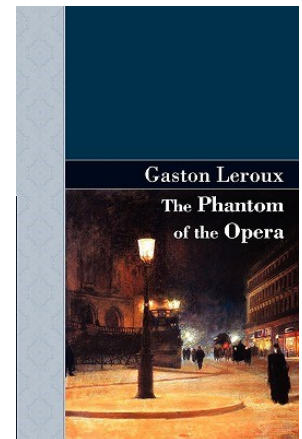

The Forsyte Saga
John Galsworthy

Gone with the Wind
Margaret Mitchell

The Age of Innocence
Edith Wharton

The Phantom of the Opera
Gaston Leroux